Where personality and function come together...

The kitchen is the hardest-working room in the home. It must be efficient, durable, and functional. Yet it can also be so much more: The kitchen can be a creative expression of your own unique personality.

Fine cabinetry from employee-owned Showplace Wood Products brings quality, functionality and creative freedom to your cabinetry project. And it does it all at a value that just might surprise you!

Showplace cabinetry is made to order to your exact specifications. With a wide array of woods, styles, finishes and accents you're sure to find that just-right combination to fit your personal style perfectly.

Showplace also offers customization opportunities usually found only in the highest-priced cabinetry. This opens your design horizons, allowing you to precisely fit the unique demands of your space and the individual character of your creative vision.

For a detailed overview of Showplace cabinetry visit ShowplaceWood.com on the web. You'll find lots of useful information, a complete product listing and a lovely gallery of actual homes to browse and enjoy.

Showplace cabinetry is available only through authorized Showplace dealers. You will not find Showplace in a home center or in a mail-order catalog. This guarantees that you will have the skilled guidance and creative input of an experienced cabinetry professional. Cabinetry is an important and lasting component of your home. Your Showplace dealer will make sure it's done right.

Showplace Cabinetry offers:

- A wide selection of styles to fit your tastes
- A comprehensive menu of woods and finishes
- Hand-applied glazing at no additional charge
- Versatile designs with handcrafted quality
- Great value with full creative freedom
- Lifetime-warranty all-wood construction
- Standard full-extension drawer glides

So Many Showplace Choices...

The expansive Showplace product menu offers so many choices that you're free to express your own personal style. From rich and warm to bright and cheerful, Showplace cabinetry gives you true design freedom.

Showplace offers a wide range of cabinet designs and enhancements. Add convenience and make the most of your space with roll-out trays, lazy susans, mini pantries, baskets and bins, plate racks, wine racks, and much more. Select from a versatile range of decorative elements. There is a complete selection of specialty kitchen cabinet designs as well as designs for the bath, home office, rec room, even designer closets and Murphy Wall-Beds. You can also select custom modifications as desired: Create unique sizes. Add glass doors or decorative panels. You can even specify custom paint colors. With all this versatility, your design options are wide open – even if your budget is not.
